2026 Class Board of Directors (One year terms)

Kerry Brenner Primary Skill/Expertise: Community engagement, Multigenerational Outreach Relationship to SWCA: Member, residing in Williamstown Brief Bio: Kerry serves as a natural customer service ambassador and is at her best when she's engaged with the world around her. She spent her career as a high school librarian and now tutors students at the Buxton School, works part-time at Nature's Closet, and volunteers at Images Cinema. Her high energy, wide-ranging curiosity and enthusiasm for people help her to connect with diverse demographics—from long-time residents to new families. Her diverse personal interests: hiking, catching live music, or watching theater make her the ideal lead to grow and develop a refreshed membership strategy.

Ky Gerbush Primary Skill/Expertise: Strategic Communications, Grant writing Relationship to SWCA: Member, Volunteer, S. Williamstown Resident Brief Bio Ky has already proven to be an asset by being an active volunteer on our Newsletter. Ky's has a passion for community involvement and offering a fresh perspective to community engagement and participation in marketing and communications through her participation with the Milne Library's Welcome to Williamstown event, web newsletter, Civic Corner, and her new role as the Images Marketing and Outreach lead. Her ability to secure external funding and lead complex projects will be helpful for SWCA to scale our impact.

Kate Heekin Primary Skill/Expertise: Outreach and Public relations Relationship to SWCA: Active Member, Volunteer, South Williamstown Resident Brief Bio: Williams admission officer for nine years; admission officer & academic advisor at MCLA for 11 years. Mother of senior and freshman sons at Mount Greylock Regional High School. Committed to community service and connection in a number of organizations in Williamstown. She's been committed to providing safe communities; you may have seen her in the early mornings at the Five Corners roundabout advocating for safe and brave spaces in Williamstown. Kate is excited to build strong relationships among residents. She is an outgoing and organized person who would be a great asset for membership outreach and community partnerships.

Liz Redwing Primary Skill/Expertise: Events & Project Management Relationship to SWCA: Member, Volunteer, S. Williamstown Resident Brief Bio: Liz brings a wide range of non-profit skills that include helping to support the logistics of planning events, research, and compliance from her current work as the administrative coordinator of the California Copyright Conference. She is tech savvy and effective at operationalizing systems through her work. Liz is a motivated and active participant in some of our most high profile community activities including the Repair Café and also volunteers for other community organizations such as Images where she was asked to co-curate this year's Indigenous Peoples' Film Festival. Liz's operations expertise for non-profits will be a great help to develop SWCA's systems and community engagement.
